In the OnePlus tradition, the new papes pack a lot of abstract eye candy with swirling paint and trippy terrain renders.Mr. Olsson is also the artist behind OnePlus 2 and OnePlus X backgrounds, where he experimented with bringing acrylics into 3D. He decided to go a step further for the new flagship, however, and the result is pretty amazing, we must say. The artist is promoting his wallpaper app Abstract, coming soon to Android and iOS, with a selection of great high-resolution wallpapers, available for download in more 4K glory at his blog linked below. Source: Hampus Olsson (Abstract) via Our OnePlus Sign UP For Newsletter! I like Halloween. It was my second favorite holiday just come Christmas, but held a special place in my heart because I got back-to-back kindness from my birthday and then, 24 hours later, all the nice Halloween bringings. The folks at DualBoot Games (creators of other live wallpapers like Celtic Garden HD) have whipped up another one for us, this time all obsessed and creepy, just in time for Halloween. It's called Haunted House HD, and as far as live wallpaper goes, although it's time sensitive, it's probably one of the most detailed I've come across. From the moment you turn on the live wallpaper selector and choose Haunted House HD, the Halloween vibe will wash through you. A camera pans by a scary house, shrouded in fog, as lights flash on and off constantly. Jack-o-lanterns protect the doors and scary messages appear on the door in blood. Everything went pretty smoothly, despite the fact there are a lot going on. The door opens and closes itself while the camera scans back, the lights turn on, exposing a shadow in the window and the flag on the mailbox moves up and down at its own will. If you want to get inside the house, you'll have to jump into the fully loaded settings menu and change the camera view. Inside the house is like (if not more) busy than the sympathy. The light continues to flicker, the flame is a pale blue, spooky, and the painting has skulls overlapping the subject's face. Ethereal steps around and disappears on the floor, and strange winds toss the chandelier around. It's a lot to put on, but it's still very exciting. Back to the settings menu, when I say load, I mean it. You can choose your camera view, name your mailbox and doort, choose the type of face you want for pumpkins, and turn each variable on or off that wallpaper has to offer. If you feel like getting in the holiday spirit, Haunted House HD is $1.99 in the Android market. We've got more photos and download links after the break.
